MISS WADE HOWENSTEIN WEDS MR. COLLINS

The home of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Howenstein, 116 Chestnut avenue, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday evening last, September 19, when their daughter, Mary Wade, was united in marriage by the Rev. Christian G. Koppel, pastor of the Little Church on the Hill, to Robert Carter Collins, of Wilmington, Delaware.

The home was tastefully decorated with palms and autumn flowers.

The bride wore a handsome gown of white charmeuse and georgette crepe and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

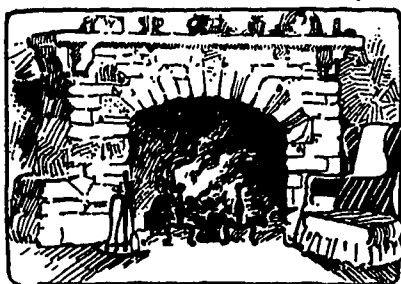

The maid of honor was beautifully gowned in flesh colored satin and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses. Mrs. Collins is one of Narberth's most charming girls and was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts from a large circle of friends who wish her well in her new home. Mr. Collins is well known to many in the community and is successfully engaged in business in Wilmington.

After an extended wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Collins will make their home in Wilmington.

SELECTED MEN RECEIVE GIFT FROM CITIZENS OF FIRST DISTRICT

The one hundred selected men who were mobilized at Ardmore last Thursday were presented with a combination pocket knife, the gift of the citizens of Lower Merion township. Honorable Fletcher W. Stites and Postmaster Edward S. Haws made the presentation to the men at roll call, 5 P. M., at the Ardmore Public Playgrounds. Each man as he received the knife, expressed his pleasure upon being remembered in this way. It is planned to give each of the 397 men who will go from this district a similar gift.

Villanova College reopened, Tuesday with a new president in charge, Rev. Joseph Dean, O. S. A. The former one was Rev. E. G. Dolan, O. S. A., who is stationed now in Syracuse, N. Y.

FINALS IN TENNIS SINGLES SATURDAY

Kirkpatrick and Owen Humphreys to Meet in Big Match—Doubles Championship Won By Kirkpatrick and Staples

Knocked completely off his feet by our scathing attack in last week's issue, the Weather Man apologized for his sins of commission on the three preceding Saturdays, and made good last Saturday with a regular, old-fashioned "brite and fair" afternoon, and the Red Cross Tournament of the Narberth Tennis Association progressed without interruption.

Kirkpatrick and Staples won the Doubles Championship by defeating Cowin and Town in three straight sets. Score: 9-7, 6-3, 6-3.

The singles finals will be played this Saturday afternoon, beginning at about 2.30. The contestants for honors are Kirkpatrick and Owen Humphreys, and a good sized audience will be on hand to enjoy the battle.

Last Saturday's Matches

Knowing that he would be away this week Cowin defaulted to Pattison, who was later defeated by Warwick 6-1 and 6-1. Owen Humphreys then defeated Warwick 6-3 and 6-4, which brought the former up to the finals.

Kirkpatrick defeated Town 6-3 and 6-4, and on Monday Kirkpatrick won in his semi-finals match with Philler 6-0, 6-4.

The doubles finals afforded the spectators a good afternoon's sport. Cowin and Town were particularly strong in the first set and Kirkpatrick and Staples only won after the score had gone to 9-7. But in the second and third sets Kirkpatrick's brilliancy and Staples' steadiness in placing their shots enabled them to triumph.

Consolation Finals, Too

The finals in the consolation singles will also be played this Saturday between W. R. D. Hall and Staples, and an excellent match is anticipated. Hall reached the finals after defeating Loos 6-2, 6-2, Loos defeated Schulte 6-4, 6-0.

In the consolation doubles, which are also nearing the finals, Newell and Shaw defeated McKell and Simpson 6-2, 6-1.

Won't someone who can knit helmets, kindly do so and instruct those who have only done the plainer knitting? So many are afraid to do the helmets and gloves, and the result is a scarcity of those two articles, both of which will be so badly needed.

The Southeastern Chapter of Pennsylvania, of which the Main Line branch is an auxiliary, has promised 25,000 sets of five pieces by October 15, 1917. Mrs. Redifer, of Essex and Windsor avenues, will supply yarn free, also instructions, to anyone who will do this knitting at home. There is such a rush for them, and such a short time, that everyone who can knit or will learn, are asked to help fill this order.

The Red Cross work room will be closed on Friday to enable the people to go to the carnival at Bryn Mawr. Everyone should go Friday or Saturday to this carnival and do all in their power to make this a success for the Red Cross. It will be one of the most wonderful affairs ever given.

Donations for the following tables are kindly asked for, to be left at the Red Cross work rooms in Narberth: Candy and cake, knitting, fancy and useful articles and also for the rummage sale.

LADIES, PLEASE NOTE

Ladies' Gym Class of the Y. M. C. A. will open October 4, 1917, at 10.30 A. M. sharp. If not already a member, now is the time to become one. Send in your name to Gym Manager Mrs. E. Hurth.

Mr. and Mrs. Gregg Blanchard and family, of Pittsburgh, are the guests of Mrs. Harriett L. Gregg.

JUDGES REPORT ON BEST KEPT GARDENS

Brief Summary of Their Findings—Interesting Data From a Judge's Point of View and Interesting Data to Govern Your Work Next Year

The judges of the 1917 contest for the best kept and most attractive yards in Narberth, have finished their work for the year, and a brief summary of their findings may be of value to both to those who won the coveted prizes and honorable mentions and those who did not, and will perhaps explain why apparently well-kept and well-arranged yards did not meet with the approval of the judges.

Scored by points for clean appearance a great many yards would have received the required fifty points and this fact is indeed gratifying when one considers that the care of many of these yards is undertaken by the householder himself or perhaps his wife, both of whom have also many more duties to perform. It shows most certainly that community spirit is not dormant in Narberth. Unfortunately from the judges' point of view, which I feel as the correct one, as all the judges are competent and disinterested men whose sole business it is to perfect plans for beautiful and attractive plantings, the wrong idea seems to prevail as to what constituted an attractive yard.

In arranging the interior of our house we pay attention to a definite color scheme and general arrangement of furniture, etc., with a view of making our home pleasing to us and others. By proper arrangement and type of furniture, we obtain the idea of space in perhaps a small room. By proper hanging of our pictures, each in a different light, we bring out the beauties the artists intended to convey. By our floor and wall coverings we bring the needed touch of warmth or coolness to effect the whole. If an added touch is needed, a vase of flowers, a bit of shining brass or other ornament will bring the desired effect, and make our home one we are always glad to return to.

The same idea is true to as great an extent with our yards and I am sure would and could be carried out to as great success were the public aware that it could as easily be done. Possibly it will require a slight study of the desired trees, shrubs and flowers in order to obtain the best results, but what in the world is more interesting? Whether your house is new or old, just blot from your memory the existing planting and begin as though no planting existed.

Fix the points of the compass in your mind for all plants respond to their particular choice of exposure, though this does not mean they may not thrive at different exposures.

Next, retain in your memory or on paper, the views you wish to procure, bearing in mind that a view of your neighbor's yard may be fine and not cost a cent, so why is a hedge. Also, look all about to see if there are no long vistas on neighboring property which may become yours to view. If there are, keep them by not shutting them out by your own planting which may not be as beautiful.

The War Library Fund, started at the suggestion of the War Department, and placed in charge of the American Library Association, deserves the hearty co-operation of every citizen. The boys in camp and cantonment need good reading matter in their leisure hours, and this is the best and most economical way to provide it. Each community is asked to raise an amount in dollars equal to five per cent. of its population. This means only $150 for Narberth, a comparatively small sum. There will be other calls in the future, and those of use who cannot serve as soldiers or sailors, must go the limit in providing for the aid and comfort of those others who are offering their lives to preserve and perpetuate everything that is most dear to us all. Let the response to these appeals be prompt and generous.

Statistics of the recent primary election in Narberth furnish a striking illustration of the apathy of the average citizen, in matters concerning local government. We understand there are about 800 voters in Narberth. Only about 500 registered, and not many more than 265 actually voted. Yet the primary election is the very corner-stone of our government, National, State and local. In foreign countries, thousands have died to secure the precious right to vote. Here, thousands throw the privilege away, yet criticize and grumble at the authorities who are elected.

To the Editor of Our Town.

The following is an extract from a letter just received from a young man who is serving in the French Ambulance Corps:

"I'll never forget one funny experience I had. We were going along on a terribly black night, and weren't sure whether we were on the right road or not, and as I saw a shadow ahead, I thought I'd get out and ask. I mustered up my best French and went to it. After about ten minutes of vain attempt I was about to give up when I noticed that I had been talking to a mule, and it wasn't my bad French after all."

To The Narberth Civic Association, Narberth, Penna.

Dear Sirs:—As chairman of the committee appointed to judge the yards for the Narberth Civic Association, tion, I beg to submit the following report:

The committee comprising Mr. Andrew MacNaughton, superintendent; Mrs. C. J. Cassatt, of Haverford; Mr. A. Chandler Manning, landscape architect of Ardmore, Penna., and myself, after a thorough inspection of the borough of Narberth, have arrived at the following conclusions and decide that the prizes be awarded as follows:

Class A—Yards with a frontage of 20 to 60 feet. First prize, No. 15 Chestnut avenue.

Honorable mention: No. 9 Chestnut avenue, No. 24 Woodside avenue, No. 9 Woodside avenue, No. 232 Dudley avenue, No. 215 Dudley avenue.

Class B—60 to 100-foot yards. First prize, Edwin P. Dold. Honorable mention, Carroll Downes.

Class C—100 feet and upwards. First prize, Mr. C. H. Roberts, Wynne-wood avenue.

Honorable mention, Mr. Golze, corner Shirley and Haverford avenues; Fletcher Stites, three places.

Grand prize, Dr. O. J. Snyder.

Narbrook prizes: First, Mr. Artman; second, Mr. Shand.

The members of this committee are each preparing a brief statement of the reasons for awarding the prizes as given with suggestions which we trust will be of benefit to those who did and did not win them.

Very truly,

Hugh B. Barclay,
Chairman.

To the Editor of Our Town:

Through the columns of your paper I wish to thank all my friends, and workers, who gave me their support at the primary election held last Wednesday.

Raymond C. Jones.

MADAMESELLE DIPLOMAT

There is only one more trying thing for a girl than being proposed to by a man for whom she is well aware that she can never care, and that is to refuse a soldier on the eve of his departure for the front.

Now, there is a right and wrong way of saying "No" to a man.

There must be no half-heartedness about the refusal, for that is almost tantamount to giving a degree of encouragement.

Having made up her mind that though he is a nice companion he could never be her husband, a girl must be most decided; she must not use a term suggesting, or giving the slightest hint that his proposal might be favorably considered later on.

In defence of this method of refusal it might be said that some girls don't like to be harsh; they try to put a man off; they don't want to appear unkind, especially if he is a soldier who is going out to fight; yet in reality they are very unkind indeed; it is far better to settle the matter for good and all.

It goes without saying that it is difficult for a girl to behave in just the right way when refusing a man's offer, for he is paying her the very highest compliment possible, but when a girl in her heart knows that she cannot give him her love, she must be candid, even although it causes pain.

On the other hand, no girl should refuse an offer in a disgusted or semi-insulted style. Yet girls do this at times, and no doubt regret it afterwards, even if the man never makes a second attempt to capture their hands and hearts.

Always let a girl beware of one thing—namely, saying "No" when she really means "Yes;" this is one of the most criminal things possible, and doubtless many old maids to-day have this to thank for their condition of single blessedness.

To say "No," however, in a graceful and at the same time final manner is not easy; and, perhaps when a young man proposes, a girl cannot do better than put him off for the moment by saying she will think the matter over, and write telling him her decision.

Naturally, she will be better able to tell him distinctly in a letter than ever she could by word of mouth.

Some may think that by so acting she shows cowardice, but that is entirely a matter of opinion, and even if she does, small blame to her, for the position is exceedingly delicate.

Moreover, in the privacy of her own room she is able to compose a sensible letter, and in it can tell him most plainly that she never can become his wife, therefore he need not try again.

The man reads this when thoroughly cool; the ardor, the passion, which a personal interview is almost bound to produce, are absent; he can grasp exactly what she means, and if he be wise he will not ask her again.

NEW EXEMPTION RULES

Only Appeals on Industrial Ground Go to President

Provost Marshal General Crowder Tuesday telegraphed new instructions to all Governors covering dependency, agricultural and industrial exemptions.

General Crowder emphasized two points:

1.—That there is no appeal to the President except in claims for discharge based on engagement in agriculture or industry.

2.—That no evidence not submitted to district boards will be considered by the President in acting on agricultural or industrial claims.

The Provost Marshal General rules however, that dependency claims declined by district boards may be appealed to State Governors.

"If local boards have made mistakes in individual cases resulting in hardships," he said, "there is an appeal to the district board. Also both local and district boards may re-open cases in which they are in error up to the time the claimant is actually ordered into military service. If the local or district board is in doubt, it may apply to the Governor for information concerning the meaning of the law. An individual who believes a board has erroneously interpreted the law may call the attention of the Governor to the case. When it is clear that the board is in error the Governor may inform the board of the law and request it to reopen the case."

If, after an appeal has been taken to the President on an industrial or agricultural claim the drafted man wishes to submit new evidence he may appeal to the district board to reopen the case. General Crowder ruled. Should the district board adhere to its original decision upon re-hearing, the new evidence will be forwarded to the President for his consideration.

Urgings or suggestions from individuals concerning individual cases will not be taken into account by the President. Senators and Congressmen will be powerless to aid drafted constituents.

"The President has directed the War Department," General Crowder said, "to decline discussion of cases pending appeal or to entertain any communications, suggestions or additional evidence or statements concerning them."

LOCAL MAGNETIC POLE

In common with a few other places on the face of the earth, Treadwell Point, Alaska, claims distinction in that it is a local magnetic pole. It is one of those localities in which scientists have found that a dipping needle stands in an almost vertical position. The phenomenon is due to some local condition, such as a deposit of ore possessing strong magnetic properties. It is said that when observations were made at Treadwell Point, in 1900 and again in 1907, the dipping needle stood practically straight up and down, the north pole pointing toward the earth. When a compass was moved about in a circle of very small radius surrounding a certain spot, it was found that it reversed its direction. The compasses on ships in the channel, a mile distant, are said to be deflected about 11 degrees by this area, which possesses exceptional magnetic properties. Treadwell point is not far from Juneau.

JUDGES REPORT ON BEST KEPT GARDENS

Next your house. If it's ugly, study its bad features. Probably you can hide all of them by proper planting, not always of roses; try English ivy or enonymous to give a green background for other plantings in front; perhaps a Ginkgo tree or one Hombarsh poplar will be required, or a window box with some quiet colored flowers or vines to soften the ugly spot. Perhaps, also, another color paint will be of great help.

Next, the outbuildings, etc., you may wish to hide. Do it with group plantings so arranged as not to inform everybody that behind them is an unsightly object, but try to make it appear that the screen planting is for effect not cause. If you use Evergreens, use not more than two kinds, with perhaps one of the golden forms to add a bit of color. If you use Privet for the screen, try Regal's Privet; it is much more graceful and not quite as plentiful. Try, however, to use flowering shrubs, for the winter is short, and winter effects are not easily accomplished on small places. For your other plantings, remember that all plantings are for an object and so before you plant anything, consider the reasons for doing so and if you find none, plant nothing.

The shrubs or trees used may be of any variety if one finds them suitable for the location, but bear in mind that to make them suitable, they must perhaps not grow over a certain height, but bloom at a certain time or must correspond with other plantings. Also, that a mass planting of one variety is usually preferable to a miscellaneous lot of various varieties. To illustrate, a spring effect of Perrythia in a corner is perhaps enough if we use enough and large enough plants to make this point of view emphasized at spring time.

The simpler we plan and plant the better; for it is not necessary to have all the varieties of flowers that bloom on our estate and the idea should be to select those if possible which are not quite so often seen if they are beautiful and meet our requirements. You will note that the prize winning yards are simple ones, giving an air of neatness and not confusing to the eye and mind.

Usually, perennial and annual flowers have no place in a yard, except to give a bit of color where desired. They should otherwise be regulated to special beds or borders in the rear of the house for they look shabbily a greater part of the season.

In conclusion, bear in mind that the lawn is the mat about the picture of your house. The wider the mat the more pleasing the picture will be. No one ever saw too large a lawn, so keep always as much as possible about your house unbroken by small shrubs and flower beds. Trees you may need for shade, but use care in their selection, that they will give it to you.

Church Notes

Rally Day will be observed in this church on Sunday October 7, and the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be celebrated on October 14.

Reserve the evening of October 14 for a great meeting which will be addressed by "Ted" Mercer and "Tom" Farmer. These two men are of national reputation as soul winners and we are exceedingly fortunate in securing their services.

The meeting on Wednesday evening of this week is in the interests of the Pocket Testament League.

It is very gratifying to note the large number of new scholars being added to our Sunday school roll this fall.

Church Notes

The young people are planning a social to be held in the church parlors in the near future. The exact date will be announced in a few days.

Mr. Chalker has been in great demand as an illustrated speaker in young people's meetings, and it will be a treat to hear him Sunday evening.

The church and Bible school will hold a joint rally day service Sunday, October 14. A program is being prepared that promises to be of special interest.

"If you are staying out of church you are teaching others to do the same, and your influence counts against the best interests of the community." "We should give God the same place in our hearts that He holds in the universe." If you are not regularly attending church elsewhere, you are invited to come and worship with us.

A famous explorer declares that all lions are "left-handed." He has noticed that whenever one of these beasts desires to strike a blow it always uses the left paw.

PENT-UP WRATH

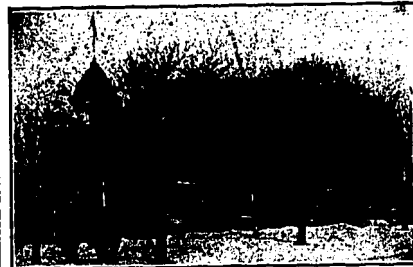

Newly-married wife: "If I'd known you'd be such a brute to poor Carlo I'd never have married you!" Husband: "The anticipated pleasure of kicking that miserable little beast was one of my chief reasons for proposing!"

WHY WORRY?

"Does your husband worry about the grocery bill?"
"No; he says there's no sense in both himself and the grocer worrying over the same bills."

OUR TOWN will gladly print any news item about any subject that is of interest to Narberth folks, but in order to meet the printing schedule, all "copy"—manuscripts—must reach the editor by 6 P. M. Monday each week.

SCHOOL NOTES

Three weeks of school work recorded.

How fast the time flies! We are not wanting vacation, but the first one is rapidly approaching—Institute Week, October 22. School will close Friday, October 19 and re-open October 26.

Director Dothard addressed the assembly last week and spent two hours visiting classes and inspecting the building and grounds.

Among the old student visitors was "Bill" Durbin, who gave us a short but pointed message.

Miss Edith Martin, daughter of Superintendent Martin, of Norristown, was elected to fill the vacancy in the science department. Miss Martin is a graduate of a four-year high school course and of Swarthmore College. She has had four years successful experience in the class room.

The lawn including sidewalks, looks fine in its new garb. We congratulate the school board on its attention to the esthetic as well as the practical.

The serving room connected with the lunch room is a big addition to the school. We are not forgetting the things that go over the counter either. It's a pity not all of our pupils can have a share in the lunch room joys and benefits. How about a campaign to educate all parents up to the point of seeing the value of having their children participate?

THE DANISH FLAG

The flag of Denmark is a plain red banner bearing on it a white cross, and is the oldest national flag now in existence. For over three hundred years Norway and Sweden were united with Denmark under this flag. In the year 1219 King Waldemar of Denmark, when leading his troops to battle against the Livonians, saw or thought he saw—a bright light in the form of a cross in the sky. He held his appearance to be a promise of Divine aid, and pressed forward to victory. From this time he had the cross placed on the flag of his country and called it the Dannebrog—the "strength of Denmark."

A young man may accumulate a lot of photos and letters for the purpose of making a bonfire the night before his wedding.

home of Mrs. Miller Burkhart, 110 Maple avenue. Special program. All invited.

Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Taylor, of Elmwood avenue, have returned from a visit to New York, where they attended the wedding of Mr. Taylor's brother, who has recently been called to the colors.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Foster, of Merion avenue, regret very much that they are to leave Narberth next week. Mr. and Mrs. Foster have both been very active in the religious work of the town, and will be greatly missed.

Mr. John Wholey, brother of Mrs. William Carrigan, Haverford avenue, and known to a number of Narberth people, has given up his position with the U. G. I. of Philadelphia and gone into the farming business on a large scale in Florida.

Twenty-five Japanese flowering cherries have just been planted at Narbrook, a contribution from the Garden Nurseries. If everyone would plant a rose flowered cherry tree in his yard, the dream of Mr. Norman Jefferies would probably be fulfilled.

A lot of young cherry trees were planted two years ago; they all need fertilizers, as most of them do not seem to have made much growth. The trees in Mr. John B. Williams' yard, planted at the same time, are now five times as large as most seen about town.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Downs, who are motoring through Vermont, write to Narberth friends that they are having a splendid trip, but Narberth is still "Year 'Round Home Town." They are stopping in the interesting historic Revolutionary region of Ethan Allen and Seth Warner episodes.

The toll houses along the old Lancaster pike, from Philadelphia city line to Paoli, will be sold by the State Highway Department, October 2. The plan is to have a progressive sale, starting at the house near the Philadelphia city line at 1 o'clock, and stopping at each house until the last one, at St. Davids, is reached. The houses contain six rooms each, and are in fair condition, but must be moved from the line of the road by January 1.

HISTORIC TENNIS

Lawn tennis is at least three centuries old, having been played in 1591, when Queen Elizabeth was entertained at Elvetham, in Hampshire, by the Earl of Hertford. Strutt quoting from Nichol's "Progress of Queen Elizabeth," relates that "after dinner, about three o'clock, ten of his lordship's servants, all Somersetshire men, in a square green court, before her Majesty's window, did hang up lines, squaring out the form of a tennis court and making a cross line in the middle. In this square they, being stript out of their doublets, played, five to five, with hand ball, to the great liking of Her Highness."

Anyone who can spare a little time each day, could obtain yarn free from Mrs. Redifer, and make a sweater for the soldiers. They are quite easy to make, being sleeveless and taking less time than a scarf. There is such a demand for the sweaters and helmets, particularly, that anyone who can knit would be doing a good charitable act by making these articles, leaving the plain things such as wristlets and scarfs for the novices.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Oh joys, oh boys, the gymnasium will be thrown open on Monday, the 24th, and classes will commence October 1st with Mr. Charles W. Schaefer as physical director in charge.

With the able assistance of a new Board of Managers this season, it is hoped that the physical department will be the headliner of the local association.

Great chances await everybody for those needed exercises and it is the desire of the physical instructor to develop an indoor athletic team to compete with other associations.

Did you ever hear about it? The association is going to have a marathon race of five miles to be held on Thanksgiving Day, if you have not signed up, do so at once and get into the training squad.

The Older Boys' Department will have their bowling tryouts all this week. It is the desire of the managers in charge, Messrs. Cooke and Odell, to pick out five of our best boys to compete with them all. Now's your chance, you young blood of Nar-berth, jump in and "do your bit."

The schedule for the gymnasium during the winter season will be as follows:

Boys up to the age of sixteen, with the exception of Working Boys, must use the gym floor (except Thursdays) from 3 to 5 P. M. Not permitted into Men's Game Room after 6 P. M., unless permission is secured.
Gymnasium will be closed on Thursdays and every afternoon from 5 to 7.30 P. M.

Monday night 7.30 to 8.30 P. M., gym class of the Working Boys; 8.30 to 9.30, Seniors gym class and basket ball.

Tuesday night, Business Men Excl.
Class, 7.30 to 8 P. M.; volley ball until 9 P. M.; basket ball until 9.30 P. M.

Wednesday night, 7.30 to 8.30, combined Seniors and Working Boys gym class with basket ball last hour period.

Thursday, Closed all day.
Friday night, Business Men Excl.
games and volley ball.

Saturday night, games at discretion of athletic manager and physical director.

Note:—On Monday and Wednesday afternoons from 3 to 4 P. M. will be gym class for boys up to sixteen years of age only, with games, including basket ball, after 4 P. M. Saturday morning, 10 to 11.30 A. M., basket ball practice for Junior teams up to sixteen. Saturday afternoons, basket ball practice, sixteen years and up, 3 until 5 P. M.

If any clubs desire the use of the floor for basket ball games, last period hour, from 8.30 to 9.30, must be used, permission, however, to be first obtained from the manager or physical director in charge.

Managers and captains of all clubs connected with the association will please understand that the association will not be responsible for any charges or costs incurred whatsoever
in connection with expenses, injuries, etc., unless agreement is entered into before the games are played.

Now is the golden opportunity to join.

Plenty of good news. Watch Bulettin Boards at "Y. M."

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY, NARBERTH Y. M. C. A.

The first regular monthly meeting of the fall season will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Building on Thursday afternoon, September 27, at 2.30 promptly.

It is very urgent that the attendance be large and enthusiastic, as plans incident to the opening of Loveloy Mary's Garden will be discussed and definitely completed.

Six silver teas have been given during the summer, and have been most successful both socially and financially. A cordial invitation is extended to all members and friends of the Y. M. C. A. by Mrs. A. H. Wilson, 212 Wayne avenue, on Thursday, September 20, and Mrs. J. F. Smith,
211 Elm Terrace on Wednesday,
October 3.

Please remember these dates and join us in a cup of tea. This invitation, we trust, will appeal specially to those of us who have been conspicuous by our absence during the heated period.

COMMUNITY MARKETING

It may be of interest to the residents of Narberth to know that a "community marketing" committee has been formed under the auspices of the Women's Community Club of Narberth. Its success will depend largely upon the co-operation it receives from you.

A letter from the Department of Agriculture states that this department is prepared to ship potatoes and apples in carload lots around the first two weeks in October. A minimum carload of apples contains 150 barrels and potatoes in either barrels or sacks to the amount of 600 bushels per carload lot.

The committee mentioned has already received large quantities of butter and hope to follow with other household commodities.

If you are interested in particulars relative to the foregoing, any information will be cheerfully given, if you will phone Narberth 395-W on Monday and Tuesdays between the hours of 10 and 12 A. M.

If this appeals to you, it is expedient that you communicate at once,
so that the committee may ascertain if the proposition can be carried through successfully.

The officers of the Community Club
of Narberth are:

President—Mrs. C. P. Fowler.
Vice-president—Mrs. Ellery Taylor.
Recording Secretary—Mrs. Harry Jacobs.
Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Roy
Clark.
Treasurer—Mrs. E. Cockrill.

WOMEN ASKED TO VOLUNTEER THEIR SERVICE FOR REGIS- TRATION

The Women's Committee of the Council of National Defense is working to secure a thorough registration of the women, in order to obtain a knowledge of the woman power and the number of trained women available to fill positions vacated by men called to national service. This registration will also disclose the number of women able to render volunteer service and to those who desire to work for compensation.

A committee for registration is now being formed in Montgomery county and women in every village and town of the county are urged to volunteer their services for this work. If all the clubs, lodges and church societies,
the W. C. T. U. and suffrage organizations will unite to form in every center a unit of the Council of Defense, to whom the directions from the State and National Committees may be passed along and by them carried into effect, the registration will be thoroughly and quickly completed.

For information, address Mrs. R.

of National Defense, Athens avenue,

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow townsman, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.
As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
